

Fort Dearborn Life Insurance Company[®] Has Made It Easier for You to Submit Medical Evidence of Insurability!

Now it is more convenient to submit your Evidence of Insurability information that is necessary to apply for group life and long-term disability insurance. The online Evidence of Insurability application allows you to provide this information whenever and from wherever is best for you.

Applying for more insurance coverage?
Applying as a late applicant, after first being eligible for your group insurance plan?

It's Fast, It's Easy, and It's Available When You Are

Our online medical Evidence of Insurability application is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week* at FDL-Life.com. If you have an Internet connection, you can access the form, input the information and submit it for review. It's as easy as that.

Just "Click" to Submit Your Information

Start by going to the Fort Dearborn Life Web site (www.fdl-life.com). Click the tab labeled "Individuals." On this page, you will see a link titled "Evidence of Insurability."

Clicking "Evidence of Insurability" will take you to the form. Complete the form one section at a time, following the prompts. If you do not enter the appropriate data or forget to answer a question, you will be prompted before you move to the next section of the form. You will be directed to any omissions so that you can complete them.

Your Privacy Is Our Concern

The information you submit is confidential, and the form is built to protect your privacy. To determine your eligibility for life and long-term disability insurance, we may need to obtain additional medical information to determine if you meet our underwriting criteria.

After you complete the Evidence of Insurability form, you will need to agree and authorize us, if necessary, to request additional information by reading the Agreements and Authorization. That's it!

* Not available in all states.

Your EOI Online Submission Checklist

It's that easy and it saves you time. Here's how it works:

- Go to the Fort Dearborn Life Web site (www.fdl-life.com)
- Click the "Individuals" tab
- Click the link to "Evidence of Insurability"
- Complete the form section by section
 - The system will take you back to any missed or incomplete items
- Read the "Agreements and Authorization" and authorize
- Submit and print a copy of the completed form

Another way Fort Dearborn Life Works

Better service is part of the group benefits we bring to you. Our online Evidence of Insurability system saves you time and makes submitting this necessary information easier. It's another way Fort Dearborn Life Works.

